NEWPORT PERSONALS

Fred Reed was buried by a cave-in at the site of the Renihan block on Main street, where extensive repairs are being made, Tuesday evening. He was at work alone where the excavating was done and was caught by the head and shoulders in such a way that his head was buried. Bruce Renihan happened to see the accident and Mr. Reed was immediately helped out and taken home and on Wednesday morning was reported as out of danger, being only lame and some-what bruised. But for the timely rescue the outcome would have been
